NelsonCorp Wealth Management Advisors Attend Ignite Conference

Nelson and Woodcock Sit on Panel

(November 2017) NelsonCorp Wealth Management advisors recently attended the Ignite National Conference in Dallas, TX, hosted by Cambridge Investment Research, Inc.

The three-day signature event is filled with numerous industry leaders presenting on a wide range of educational topics and current financial strategies and regulations. As part of the conference lineup, NelsonCorp Wealth Management President and CEO, David Nelson, as well as team member Jake Woodcock, were selected to sit on a panel discussing regulatory considerations to the hundreds of advisors from all over the country in attendance.

“Being selected to present to our peers at Cambridge’s signature event is truly an honor. With all the headlines in our industry from the Department of Labor over the past twelve months, knowing that NelsonCorp Wealth Management has been at the forefront of these changes serves as a testament to the quality of service we provide,” added Nelson.

As part of the Ignite Conference, a charity from the host city is chosen as a beneficiary of all fundraising efforts at the event. This year’s charity was the Dallas Children’s Advocacy Center, whose mission is to improve the lives of abused children in Dallas County, and to provide national leadership on child abuse issues.

NelsonCorp Wealth Management has served the financial needs of others for more than 35 years, growing from three associates in a small Illinois office to more than a dozen team members in multiple locations.
